

Koprivnica

The City of Koprivnica is the County centre of administration, business, education, sports and culture. It was officially declared The Free Royal Town back in the year 1356. It is the home of the food processing company Podravka, has one of the most beautiful city squares of inland Croatia and a recognizably traditional interior of the Kraluša alehouse. The Monument to the Bicycle and the open-air Bicycle Museum featuring replicas of famous bicycles through history, from Da Vinci's to the present-day, are nationally recognized as well as the Food Museum. Over fifty kilometres of cycling tracks, a free bike-sharing system and unique bicycle monuments contribute to the international recognition of Koprivnica as the Town of Bicycles. However, Koprivnica is not only the town of Vegeta food seasoning, famous sports clubs or renowned artists. It is increasingly becoming an interesting and eventful tourist destination. If you wish to immerse yourself in the Middle Ages or Renaissance life-style, try ancient meals and beverages, feel the daily struggle of our ancestors and their treatment of knights, lepers, witches and jesters- make sure to pay a visit to the traditional Renaissance Festival on ancient Koprivnica city walls every year in late August. The Koprivnica Renaissance Festival is one of Croatian Tourist Board TOP events, awarded the prestigious Tourist Event of the Year 2019. Award. Contemporary artists, painters and sculptors gather annually at traditional Podravina motifs Festival in summer. The Festival is dedicated to naive art, but also honours traditional trades and crafts, as well as the local gastronomy typical for the Podravina region.

Đurđevac

The town of Đurđevac is widely known for the unique event Picokijada, listed and protected by the national Ministry of Culture as the non-material cultural heritage of the Republic of Croatia, as well as a TOP tourist events of Croatian Tourist Board. The main event of this historic and cultural story of Đurđevac is the Legend of „picoki“ (roosters), a costumed re-enactment of the Turkish attack of the Old Town of Đurđevac and its defense. The Legend is based on historic facts of the long siege of the Old Town by the powerful Ottoman leader Ulama-bey in 1552. The Old Town is nowadays a cultural monument of the 1st category. It contains a museum and gallery housing a valuable legacy of works of art by the naive painter Ivan Lacković Croatia. The Interpretation Centre of Picokijada event was included among three TOP attractions in Croatia in 2017. The Đurđevac Sands, known as the Croatian Sahara, is a protected geo-botanical reserve with numerous endemic species of flora, varied fauna and attractive sand dunes over 19.5 ha of land, a unique desert area in this part of Europe.

Križevci

Križevci is the oldest town in the county. It is known for the historic „Križevci Bloody Parliament Session“, Croatian saint and the County patron St Marko Križevčanin (St Marcus of Križevci), the church of St Cross, the old town centre and „Križevci Statutes“ (Wine Public Feast). It is the seat of Križevci Diocese for Greek Catholic worshippers with the Greek-Catholic Cathedral of Holy Trinity containing a grand iconostasis. The annual event you should not miss is „Križevačko veliko spravišće“ (traditional historic and public feast): a humorous recreation of the 700-years old legendary feud and reconciliation of Križevci citizens and the noblemen of the nearby Kalnik mountain. If you wish to get away from the city bustle and enjoy the wealth of pure nature, a trip to the nearby mountain of Kalnik is the perfect choice. It offers a true enjoyment for body and mind: besides walking along the instructive paths, hiking on one of the most beautiful mountain path in Croatia, sports climbing, paragliding or mountain biking you can try the delicious strudel in the Mountain Cabin or taste the original local „klešec“ wine.
